Press

My work has been recognized by Graphis Inc, Print Magazine, Type Director's Club, Communication Arts, Brand New, the Dieline, LogoLounge, AIGA, and others.

Skills

I am experienced in brand identity design, brand strategy, illustration, packaging design, interactive design, photography art direction and typography. This experience has developed a high level of expertise in the Adobe Creative Suite and Figma. I can tackle a wide variety of projects with a strong understanding of print and digital production processes. I take pride in a high level of craft, attention to detail and organization, allowing me to successfully meet deadlines. So far, my career has allowed me to lead a variety of projects, mentor younger creatives, and collaborate across a range of industries.

I also dabble in many areas, with plenty of experience in copy writing, mural work, sign painting and more.
